Contact

Dec 25/Jan 26

We extend a very warm welcome to you and invite you to join us for worship. If you are just visiting we will be happy to greet you, and hope that we may meet you again on your next visit. If you have recently come to live in the area, we hope that you will feel at home amongst us and that we may have the opportunity in the future to welcome you to our services and other events in the Church programme.

Our Services are usually held weekly at 10.30am, although occasional Circuit Services elsewhere will mean we do not have a service at Prestbury on those days. See the back page of this edition of Contact or our Church website for current details plus lots more at www.prestburymethodistchurch.org.uk

The District On-line Services are normally held on the second Sunday of every month at 6.30pm. The Zoom link is:

Christmas Decorations

As we enter the Season of Advent, excitement builds for Christmas—a time filled with presents, delicious food, family gatherings, and festive decorations.

One of my favourite decorations is the Christmas lights, which now brighten the streets and bring warmth to the long winter nights.

This joyful atmosphere is beautifully captured in a poem by Bob Hartman, a well-known Christian storyteller and author, who writes about the magic of Christmas decorations:

Lights and bells, bells and lights.
Cold pale mornings, long dark nights
As Winter's grey grabs hold and bites Christmas comes.

Lights and bells, bells and lights.

Lights and bells, bells and lights.
Angel songs, stars like kites.
Good News rings out from Heaven's heights
And Jesus comes with sounds and sights.
Lights and bells, bells and lights.

Lights and bells, bells and lights.
Stable rafters and starry brights,
Paint shadow crosses on wood uprights.
The baby turns...Turns wrongs to rights.
Lights and bells, bells and lights.
For you and me, turns wrongs to rights.
Lights and bells, bells and lights.

This beautiful poem weaves Jesus into the heart of our Christmas decorations, reminding us not only of His birth but also of His purpose—culminating in Good Friday and the hope He brings.

Amid the glitter and excitement of the season, it's easy to lose sight of Jesus. Perhaps we should pause and reflect on the true reasons behind our celebrations. In doing so, we may encounter the One who, for each of us, "turns wrongs to rights."

I pray that you may have a wonder-filled Christmas and a blessed New Year.

God bless, Steve

LIGHT PARTY 2025

It was a pleasure to help at the “Light Party” held at Chapel on Friday 31st October. Light parties are arranged to offer an alternative on Halloween to the darker witchcraft themed party activities. What starts as supposedly an innocent charade is very easily transformed into an unhealthy interest in the occult, with negative effects on teenage mental health.

Jesus Christ is the Light of the World, and the light shines in the darkness and the darkness has never put it out. We need to spread that message widely, as we work to heal some of the problems in our society today. All the commercial pressure at Halloween supports the opposite view.

Fifteen children aged 3-11 attended and made all manner of light-related crafts and artwork. Thankfully the invention of cheap LED tea lights prevents any fire risk as various lanterns and displays were set up. The children learned that Jesus brings light into our lives and that goodness will always eventually conquer evil.

After hot dogs and soup the children with leaders and some parents took gifts of light to most of the houses in The Shirleys in a “Light Parade”. Boxes made at the light Party were left on the doorsteps of the residents. It was difficult breaking from the idea of knocking on doors on Halloween, but we succeeded. The gifts were left to be found when residents opened their doors – a tea light, a chocolate, a scripture message – left to show God’s Grace freely given.

It is our prayer that the residents who received gifts will appreciate the gesture, and that the children will remember their walk in the dark taking light to others.

As ever a word of thanks is due to Angela and her team.

Roger

Prayers for December & January

May those celebrating their birthdays have a blessed day:
Sophie Hiscott, Sam West, John le Moignon, Helen Farrer,
Lynne Waller, Lynn Oliver, Avril Compson, Tim Lane, Sandra Bruce,
Hannah Hooley, Olivia Holder.

Loving God, in this time of Advent we think of your coming in perfect humanity, and we think of your coming into our lives and the life of our church.

We thank you for all your people everywhere now and throughout history, especially those who have shown supreme examples of faith. Help us play our part in spreading the light of faith.

Thank you for your prophets, the ancient seers who kept alive the hope of the Messiah's coming and also those of today who help direct our way. Help us to listen and understand your message for today's world.

Thank you for John the Baptist who paved the way and prepared people for your coming. Help us to follow his example, clearing the way for you to come into new hearts.

Thank you for Mary who was asked to give her all to be used by you in your great saving work. May we be as willing and obedient as Mary to answer your call?

We thank you for Jesus who came as a light to the world who revealed your truth, offering everlasting life to all who seek You. May we help radiate the light of Christ in all we say and do and are.

We pray for all who are in need of food and shelter, for those suffering from famine and war. We hold up to you the sick and bereaved. Let your love surround them all and bring them relief.

As we move into the New Year grant us the perseverance of the wise men in following the star and seeking Jesus. Help us show the same dedication in following and listening to Christ.

Lord Jesus Christ, light of the world, by your cross you have overcome all darkness that oppresses. Come and shine in our communities that we may grow and live together in your love which makes us one with all humanity.

Amen

Next Social Event January 24th January

Prestbury Methodist Church

SCOTTISH EVENING SATURDAY 24TH JANUARY 2026 7:00-9:30 AT HEATHER CANN'S

Traditional Haggis* with "neeps and 'tatties" followed by Raspberry Cranachan

Entertainment and games

£10 donation per person

Bring your own preferred drinks

*Vegetarian option available

Following our varied programme of social evenings, most recently the successful Pudding Evening at Valerie & Graham's (see pictures below), we are planning our next event which will be on 24th January, a Scottish-themed evening at Heather's in recognition of the following day being Burns Night. We plan to provide Haggis, "bashed 'neeps and champit tatties" (swede & mashed potatoes to us "Sassenach's") and a lovely Scottish dessert. Anyone who is unsure about what's in the Haggis can opt for the vegetarian version, a tasty savoury sausage of nuts, vegetables and oats. We'll have some poems and recitations and perhaps a game.

Everyone will be welcome. Please save the date and a sign-up sheet will be on the notice board straight after Christmas!

And there were shepherds...

In his gospel, Luke tells how the shepherds in the fields were keeping watch over their flocks when they were terrified by the sudden arrival of heavenly angels, surrounded by the glory of the Lord. And the message of the angel that night has rung down the centuries:

"I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Saviour has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger." (Luke 2:10,11)

And so, the first people to greet the Saviour were not rich VIPs, but humble shepherds. And in turn, it was the shepherds who became the first evangelists: for they would have gone home to their families and neighbours that night with the amazing news of what they had seen.

Meanwhile, for Mary there followed a time of reflection. She gathered up in her mind all her impressions, and all that the shepherds had shared about the angelic visit. She knew it was treasure, and not to be squandered. Then she quietly pondered in her heart the meaning and significance of all that had happened, so that she would never forget.

Exuberant witness and quiet contemplation are not opposites. They are, in fact, good companions in the spiritual life!

So, this Christmas, let's be filled with the joy that the Saviour has also been born 'to us'. May our lives reflect the glory of His coming, even in a small way. May our interactions with friends, colleagues and families during this Advent season reflect the great joy that the angels brought that night, so long ago.

"A Christmas Service of Light, Reflection and Remembrance"

A Bereavement Service at Poynton Methodist Church, 2.30pm Sunday Dec 14th

We know that Christmas may be difficult for you this year following the loss of a loved one, whether recently or in the past. During this Service we will remember the Christmas story in a way to encourage you and bring you comfort. You will be invited to light a candle in remembrance if you so wish. After the Service we invite you to stay for refreshments. Please invite family and friends to join you – all are welcome.

MESSY ADVENT

It's such a delight to see our chapel bounding with the voices of children and their endless energy and enthusiasm. We welcomed the Circuit Methodist Families together on Saturday November 22nd for "Messy Advent" organised and led by Angela. Sixteen children attended aged between about 2 to ten, accompanied by a similar number of Mums & Dads. There were at least 6 different crafts appropriate to a range of skills and the team of helpers from Prestbury and other churches helped even the youngest to achieve a presentable result. The most demanding was a lantern with coloured windows showing Bible scenes and a battery tea light. There were also beautiful Christmas wreaths made with stick-on seasonal decorations and an advent candle with all the days to be crossed off as they passed. Lots of colouring was done enthusiastically, especially by the very young — who cares what the lines are supposed to be for! Everyone had a goody bag to take home their creations.

The children sang a special song about Jesus, and Angela created a sketch which had different children waiting: for a bus, for dinner, or in the post office queue etc., until we heard that in the Old Testament God told the people they would have to wait for the gift of the Christ. One family were able to say that they were waiting for a new baby due at Christmas.

Amazingly some families had already set up their Christmas trees at least a week early but they still will have to wait like everyone else to celebrate Christmas Day. Finally, we said "The Messy Grace" before a meal of sandwiches, fresh fruit and juice prepared by Sandra and Jo. Everyone went home happy. The helpers went home happy too after clearing up and setting the church straight again!

We say a huge thank you to Angela for all her hard work and forethought, and also to all the volunteers and Rev. Deborah for their support.

Advent Studies 2025

A series of Studies during Advent based on the book by John Bell, former leader of the Iona Community and author of many of the new generation of Celtic Hymns.

Sessions will be held at Prestbury Methodist Chapel 10:30-12:00 on Thursdays November 27th-December 18th, starting with coffee and biscuits.

Sessions will be led as follows:

Nov 27th Steve Oliver

Dec 4th Roger Bolton

Dec 11th Rev. Stephen Dallin

Dec 18th Roger/Steve

All are welcome. Attendance at all four sessions is not essential. For more details or to indicate interest contact Roger Bolton (rgrbolton@yahoo.co.uk). A course book is available £5 but not essential.

"The Apostle's creed moves from the Virgin Mary to Pontius Pilate with only a comma in between. John Bell's contention is that we cannot understand the death of Christ unless we take stock of how his life rattled people - by his refusal to conform to the norms with regard, for example, to his preferred company, his take on etiquette, his understanding of God, and the subjects he favoured for public discussion. In four lively sessions, we ponder how Jesus in his earthly ministry fulfilled the law, the prophets and the psalms, before looking forward - with deeper interest - to the celebration of his birth in the incarnation."
